

March Staff Member of the Month

COURTNEY SCOTT

Please tell us why you feel this staff member should be considered for this award?

Courtney is a kind and patient role model for her students and peers. Her preschool students and their growth, progress and safety are Courtney's number one priority. She takes her role as a Southgate teacher very seriously and it is obvious through her compassion for her students and in the way she advocates for ALL students!

What makes this staff member stand out amongst their peers?

Courtney believes that ALL students can grow and learn. This positivity, her encouragement and gentle kindness puts all her students at ease. Also, her willingness to grow and learn and new strategies to collaborate with her paraeducators and maximize their presence in the classroom.

Please tell us why you feel this staff member should be considered for this award?

Mrs. Scott is invested in Southgate and our students. She is a valuable member of our Southgate staff and goes above and beyond to make our preschoolers feel nurtured and enthusiastic about learning.
